

THE MADURA COLLEGE

An Autonomous Institution affiliated to Madurai Kamaraj University
Re-accredited (3rd cycle) with 'A' grade by NAAC
Vidya Nagar, T.P.K. Road, Madurai – 625 011

WOMEN'S CELL

BRIEF REPORT ON PROGRAMME / EVENT ORGANISED

1. Title of the programme/event : Screen printing technology
2. Nature of the event :
3. Duration : 10 am to 4 pm on 24th August 2019
4. Venue : Auditorium
5. Hosting Department/Cell : Women's cell
6. Funding agency & grant (if any) : ---
7. Beneficiaries : UG Boys and Girls
8. Number of participants : 20
9. Details of Resource person(s) : Mr. M.Rajavel D.M.E.,
Chairman, Raja Screen printers,
Theni district - 625 536

10. Brief the proceedings of the programme along with some photographs

The programme started with the introduction of the theme of the programme by Dr.M.Prema Rani, Coordinator of Women's Cell. Mr. M.Rajavel explained the theory involved in screen printing. Later he demonstrated different types of printing using paint for various materials. Mrs. Susheela from Raja Screen printers assisted him in demonstration. Students learnt enthusiastically interacting with him. Dr.Sudha, Assistant Professor in English also participated along with students and printed interesting designs on clothes. Students printed interesting and innovative designs on different dress materials. Dr.Sudha, Assistant Professor in English, proposed the vote of thanks. Dr.J.Suresh, Principal, The Madura College distributed certificates to the participants. Dr.Sheela P.Karthick, Coordinator of Women's Cell organised the programme.

Principal
PRINCIPAL
THE MADURA COLLEGE (Autonomous)
MADURAI - 625 011